FACULTY

Twenty-two full time members, plus Otto Hood, part time, comprised the Chesaning 1948-49 Faculty.

But two changes took place over last year's faculty. They are Mrs. Minnie McFall who replaced Mrs. Sarah Lou Seelye, in the combination first and second grade and Miss Marguerite Bila replaced Miss Florence Sutton as homemaking teacher.

STUDENT COUNCIL

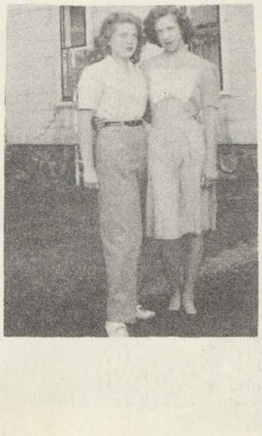
The Student Council is a member of the National Association of Student Councils this year. Under the direction of Mr. Ringler, the council carries out its many duties through committees. The committees and chairman of each this year are: Assembly Program, Eleanor Buzzard; Athletic Planning, Edward Kviz; Study Hall and Corridor, Carole Holt; School Party, Constance Wenzlick; and Civic Service and Student Problems, John Tomcala

The membership of the council consists of five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, two freshmen and one each from the eighth and seventh grades. The president and vice-president are elected by the student body. The other members are elected as representatives by their respective classes. The officers this year were: President Floyd Struck; Vice President, Art Castro; Secretary, Constance Wenzlick; Treasurer, Wilma Cowan.

Standing--McFarlan, Wentz, A. Toma, Korf, Keeven, Neumann.
Sitting--Shepard, I. Toma, Mrs. Ellis, Hintz, Wolfe.

REVEALER

The Revealer staff consists of second year typing students under the supervision of Mrs. Vera Ellis, the commercial teacher. The department printed six issues and a special senior issue this year putting out approximately 415 copies of each one. The staff consisted of: Editors, Norma Shepard and Irene Toma; Business Editor, Letisha Wentz; Sports Editor, Lorraine McFarlan; Make-up Editor, Anna Keeven; Cartoonist, Joan Neumann; Gossip, Betty Hintz; Reporters, Jeanette Wolfe, Jacky Korf, Arlene Toma.



Back Row--Street, C.Studer, B.Studer, C.Wenzlick, Korth, B.Wenzlick, B.Ringler, Desander, M.Ringler, McCartney, M.Holzhausen, Third Row--M. Y-TEENS

The Y-Teens, under the sponsorship of Miss Wilson, have spent a very active year.

The officers elected for the year were: President, Lorraine McFarlan; Vice-President, Elsie Small; Secretary, Laraine Conklin; Treasurer Ida Jane Persons.

The club was represented at the Regional Y-Teen Convention, held at Flint, by Wilma Kimmel and Elsie Small.

As usual, the highlight of the Y-Teen year was the annual, Mother-Daughter Banquet held on May 10. Credit should be given Mrs. Stewart for her help in putting on this banquet.

Among the other activities sponsored by the club were dances, movies, and an initiation party.

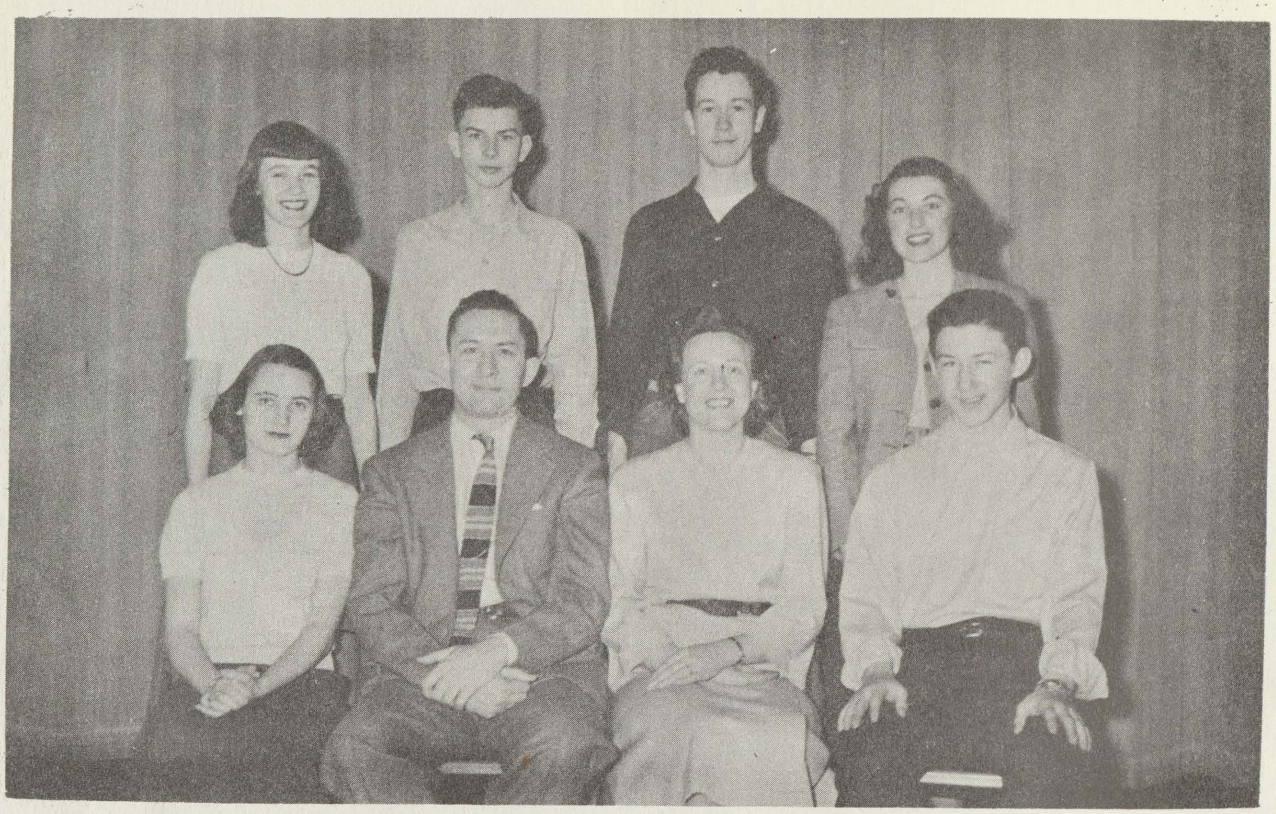
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Nine students from the Junior and Senior classes were elected this year as new members of the National Honor Society of Chesaning Chapter No. 1577. The members were selected by the High School faculty and received ratings on leadership, service, character and scholarship. There are now ninety-six members in the Chesaning Chapter.

The number of members chosen each year is limited to fifteen per cent of the Senior class and five per cent of the Junior class. Only students who rank in the upper third of the class are eligible to be chosen to the National Honor Society.



Standing: Ringler, Jackson, O'Rourke, McFarlan
Seated: Rice, Mr. Blue, Mrs. Stewart, Gray

FORENSICS

The local forensic contest was held March 15 and 16 in the study hall with twenty four students participating. Max O'Rourke was first in the oratorical declamations with "Ropes" and Edward Jackson second with "Dream of the People". In dramatic declamations Don Gray was first with "Time" and Lorraine McFarlan second with "Molly". First place winner in the oratorical field was Marilyn Ringler giving "Approach to Peace". Helen Rice was second with her oration "Something for Nothing". These speakers, with Pat Barrett in ex tempore speaking, represented Chesaning in the District Contest at Unionville. Forensic directors were Mrs. Stewart and Mr. Blue. This marked four years of participation for Helen Rice in district contest. Other seniors who concluded active forensic work were Pat Barrett, Blanche Studer, Marilyn Ringler, Lorraine McFarlan, and Connie Wenzlick.

The speakers appeared on programs before various civic and fraternal groups.

*Conference Games

Chesaning placed second in the Central "C" Conference last year, losing one game to the Conference Champs, Durand. Coach Killmaster started this year with only four letter winners, Grubaugh, Eastwood Kviz, and Castro, left over from the 1948 squad.

Thirty boys who reported for baseball this spring gave evidence of much competition for positions. Chesaning had to develop an entirely new battery this year because of last season's graduation.

Freshman Team

The Freshman Schedule consists of two games each with New Lothrop, Our Lady, and Montrose Freshmen.

TRACK

There were ten Freshmen boys on Coach Ringler's track squad in addition to the 22 upper classmen shown in the above picture, who were on last year's track squad and have had some valuable experience. The five letter winners are: Jack Gerding, Eddie Kviz, Jack Richards, Robert Stasek and Floyd Struck.

The track Schedule consisted of a meet with Arthur Hill Sophomores, two dual meets, Shiawassee Valley meet, Central Michigan college relays and the State regional and finals.

Last Year's Meets

Dual meet: Corunna 78, Chesaning 22
Triangular meet: Chesaning 74½, Hemlock 34½, St. Charles 19
Dual meet: Chesaning 62, Arthur Hill Sophomores 46
Central "C" Conference: Corunna 78, Chesaning 40½, Durand 14½, Elsie 8.

Chesaning won third place in the State regional meet in Flint with 19 points on May 22, 1948.
